

20 April 2022

Email Subject: 📧 IMPORTANT: Regulations Governing Students' Academic Conduct Concerning Assessment and Academic Integrity Statement for Online Examination

Message from Examinations Office

Dear Students

The Senate approved in April 2022 in circulation the revised "Regulations Governing Students' Academic Conduct Concerning Assessment", which take into account the arrangements of online examinations and include self-plagiarism as a kind of academic misconduct. The President & Vice-Chancellor has approved, on behalf of the Council, that the one semester's notice requirement be waived to enable the revised Regulations to take effect from the second semester of the academic year 2021-2022. The revised Regulations can be found at <https://calendar.hku.hk/regulations-governing-students-academic-conduct-concerning-assessment/>.

The Senate also approved the "Academic Integrity Statement for Online Examination", which spells out how students should behave when taking an online examination. Please refer to the first page of the "Instructions to Candidates Sitting Online Examinations" (http://www.exam.hku.hk/pdf/instructions2candidates_online_exams.pdf) for the Statement.

Students taking university assessments or online examinations should abide by the above-mentioned Regulations and/or Statement. If you have any questions, please email us at exam@hku.hk.

Judy Cheung
Examinations Secretary
April 20, 2022